

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JAN. 7, 1943

CURB REPORTER

Weather Wednesday: high 41, low 21 . . . A greeting received by the Bulletin a few days ago from Holcombe Parkes, B. E. Young and H. C. Yancey, Southern Railway officials in Washington, said in part, "Every American knows now that the courage of American fighting men and the production genius of American industry have brought us twelve months nearer Victory. Thus, sure of a better tomorrow, we express the hope that you will have plenty of good news for Page One in 1943, and extend to you and your staff our cordial good wishes for A HAPPY NEW YEAR." . . .

Ed Raynolds makes a $5 contribution to the Community Flag for the men and women in the services. That makes a total of $25 raised so far . . . J. D. Moore of Sylva is substitute manager at the Western Union here while Miss Rector is on vacation. . . . Mrs. B. King Couper's Art Gallery Exhibition is open to the public from 2 to 5 p. m. daily. . . . Tryon Boy Scouts meet tonight at the school house . . . Cpl. Willard Nessmith is somewhere overseas, England or Africa . . . 40,000 school children in 25 Western North Carolina counties can buy half pint of milk for one cent through arrangements being made by the government agency . . . Sam Rayburn of Texas was re-elected

Continued on Back Page

POLK SOLDIER DIES

Private David Blackwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Blackwell, of Mill Spring, died Wednesday in a government hospital at Santa Barbara, Calif., following an operation. Private Blackwell had been in the army since August, 1942. The body will be sent to Polk County for burial, according to Mrs. George A. Cathey, home service secretary of the Red Cross, through whom the soldier's parents were notified by the Army.

Army Men Here Friday

Julian B. Hester, Polk County director of the Air Warning Service, is calling a meeting of all interested persons to be held Friday night at 8 o'clock at the director's room of the Tryon Bank & Trust Co. Lieut. Don P. Christiansen, Sgt. Sink, and Cpt. E. E. Quirk, of the U. S. Army Air Warning Service, Columbia, S. C. will give an instructional meeting for air warning service observers. The program will last little over one hour, and will include explanation of flash message form, correct method of reporting, what happens to report at filter center, etc. All persons interested are invited to attend, says Mr. Hester.

Lieutenant Chas. L. McGavern of Craig Field, Selma, Ala., is here for a ten days' visit with his family.

W. R. McLean, U. S. Army, who has been in training at Fort Riley, Kansas, is home for a visit with his family, before going to the officers training school for military police, at Fort Custer, Battle Creek, Mich.