

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, JAN. 8, 1943

CURB REPORTER

Weather Thursday: high 38, low 30, rain .04 . . . Clyde Edwards of the U. S. Navy must be somewhere in the Pacific as he is getting his Bulletin in care of the San Francisco postmaster. New Bulletin subscriptions entered for Pvt. Clyde W. Pittman, Co. A. 654, Tank Destroyer Bn., Camp Gordon, Augusta, Ga., Pfc. Tollie W. Rhodes, 4th Service Command, Ordnance Automotive School, A. 66, Sumter, S. C., E. M. Hart, route one, Saluda . . . New contributions to the Community Flag fund have come in from Mrs. C. W. Kittrell, Mrs. B. B. Turck and Mrs. J. C. Kimberly amounting to $20.50, making a total of $45.50 received to date. . . Through Mrs. George Cathey's Raleigh News and Observer we learn that Polk County was given a nice boost by the Agriculture Dept. for the progress made in raising beef cattle. Practically the same article appeared in The Polk County News recently and the Raleigh paper lists the following cattle raisers: Dr. M. C. Palmer, W. C. Hill, R. N. Golding, Ernst Mahler, Frank Johnson, Clarence Whitesides, J. M. and L. A. Miller, W. H. Ledbetter, G. C. Skipper, H. E. Thompson, W. C. Freeman, Mrs. A. H. Rzeppa, Birchie Camp, Mrs. Sophie Landford. County Agent J. A. Wilson was quoted as saying: "Low labor requirements in raising beef cattle and

Continued on Back Page

Representative McDonald Cites Points Pertaining to His Legislative Work

Representative W. H. McDonald, Polk county representative in the State legislature said:

"I am opposed to any legislation that is not absolutely necessary and beneficial to the public as a whole. And I would like for the people of the county to let me know their desires for such laws they deem necessary."

Mr. McDonald also said that the proposed nine months school term was the first bill introduced in the legislature, and was introduced by John W. Umstead, Jr., of Orange county. Mr. McDonald stated that he was in favor of the 9-month school term.

The Polk representative also said: "I am in favor of a pay increase for the teachers in the schools of the state, and will vote for such legislation."

McDonald, who is the newly elected representative of Polk county, concluded in saying that he was also in favor of putting up the 20 million dollars for post-war purposes.

Rev. Malcolm Ross, New Pastor of Lynn Church

Rev. Malcolm Ross, pastor of the Midway and Big Level Baptist churches was called recently to be also the pastor of the Pacolet Baptist church at Lynn. Mr. Ross succeeds Rev. B. G. Henry, at Lynn, who is now full-time pastor at Tryon First Baptist church. Mr. Ross held his first service in the Lynn church Thursday night at prayer meeting.