

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JAN. 12, 1943

CURB REPORTER

Weather Monday: High 51; low 27. . . . A recent article in the Christian Science Monitor had an article about Tryon enjoying the unusual distinction of being both a winter resort and a summer resort. Hiking, riding, tennis and golf were listed among the activities enjoyed here by visitors. . . . Tom Costa says there is no difference in the feeding value of yellow and white corn, except yellow corn contains carotin which is converted into Vitamin A upon digestion. White corn contains no carotin. . . . Cpl. Chas. A. Speed of the State Highway Patrol was in Tryon Monday checking up on highway law violators; those driven without the new license plate, . . . There are 2,639 families in Polk County according to figures issued by the A&P Co., office in New York, in making a statement that Polk County housewives can save 32,196 pounds of steel by reducing their purchase of tin can canned goods by just one tin can a week. A single family can save over 12 pounds of steel a year by buying one can less each week. The statement claims that if North Carolina's 79,000 families do the same it will save over nine million pounds of steel. Noah Wilson of Jackson's is selling dehydrated soup mix in cellophane bags which he says will save a lot of steel and tin. . . . New address for LeRoy Greene, . . .

Continued on Back Page

Somervilles Buy Home Here

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Somerville of Detroit have purchased the original DuCharme home on Estabrook Hill from Mrs. Chas. B. DuCharme. Mr. and Mrs. Somerville arrived in Tryon Monday and are now guests at Mimosa Inn while work is being done on the house. They expect to move in about February 1st. Mrs. DuCharme built another home on Estabrook Hill some time ago. Sale was made through W. M. Hester.

The Episcopal Church Meeting Postponed

Owing to the gasoline restrictions the Annual Parish meeting of the Church of the Holy Cross, scheduled for Wednesday night at the Parish House, has been postponed. This meeting will be held next Sunday morning immediately after the 11 o'clock service.

SOLDIERS ENTERTAINED

The regular monthly entertainment of a group of Camp Croft soldiers in the homes of Tryon and at the Parish House, was held Sunday. After dinner in the homes the men and their hosts gathered at the Parish House for games, songs and other entertainment including a religious service directed by Rev. Charles G. Sewall and Dr. George Farrand Taylor. Mrs. Nelson Jackson, Jr., and Mrs. F. P. Bacon, chairmen and their committees entertained the following soldiers:

Earl Bogenberger of Milwaukee; John J. Wiesz, Milwaukee; Arthur D. Roderick, Provincetown, . . .

Continued on Back Page