

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WED., JANUARY 13, 1943

CURB REPORTER

Weather Tuesday: high 56, low 28 In basketball Tuesday night at Tryon gym the Baptists defeated Tryon Country club 36 to 27; Grasshoppers over Adams-Millis 34 to 16 Judge George Bell at Jackson's store says it really pays to advertise in the Bulletin for that keg of bulk kraut advertised was sold out in a few days, but some more has been ordered. Joel Stockard says advertising in the Bulletin got a washpot for him. A man saved himself a $15 fine the other day by recovering a license tag that was found and left at the Bulletin office Polk County Red Cross of which Arthur Jones is chairman, serve doughnuts and coffee to the Polk County soldiers on the morning they leave permanently after having been inducted Gifts for the President's birthday celebration may be sent to the Bulletin office. Containers will be placed in various stores for small contributions. School grades, organizations, firms and groups of all kinds are invited to contribute as units Did you save the Carolina Scenic Bus schedule published in Saturday's Bulletin? Throw it away and save the schedule printed Tuesday. There was an error. The bus leaving for Asheville at 7:30 should have been 9:30 a. m. Clip Tuesday's schedule. It is correct . . . A

-----Continued on Back Page-----

Home Demonstration Club Is Organized At Columbus

The first meeting of the Columbus Home Demonstration club was held Tuesday night at the home demonstration agent's office. 20 members joined the first night. Miss Eunice Cloud was elected president; Mrs. Robert S. McFarland, vice-president; Mrs. J. A. Feagan, secretary - treasurer. A club for Lynn community will be organized next week under direction of Miss Gladys Hamrick, home agent.

McGavern at Kiwanis

The Rev. Charles L. McGavern, was the guest speaker at the Tryon Kiwanis club on Tuesday noon at Oak Hall and gave some interesting accounts of his work as chaplain at Craig Airfield, Selma, Ala. He was high in praise of the American fighting forces, especially the young men in the air corps and the officers operating the airfield so efficiently.

Burkheads Moving

Colonel Calvin H. Burkhead is expected in Tryon today to make arrangements to move to Fort Bragg where he is stationed. Col. and Mrs. Burkhead had made their home in Tryon for nearly two years, having come here to retire, but after Pearl Harbor the Colonel asked to be recalled to active service.

The annual meeting of the Eskine Memorial Congregational church will be held tonight at 7:45.