CURB REPORTER

Weather Friday: High 65, low 30. January's warm spell is here now. It must be 70 or more outside this morning. Speaking of weather Julian Hester who contributed to the cigarette fund for British soldiers before Pearl Harbor gets another letter from an appreciative soldier. This one, Pvt. S. Vince, with the middle east forces in Egypt. He says, "It is plenty hot here and quite a few flies keep you company all day, and the sand gets in your food all the time, but it gives me a great pleasure to be able to write our friends in the U. S. A. There is not much to write about now, but we hope to have something soon. (Since this letter was written the British put Rommel on the run. Ed. note). Will you forgive my writing in pencil as ink is very short out here. Hoping this leaves you in the best of health as it leaves me. Good luck U. S. A." . . . Donald Culross Peattie is writing a book and for additional material needs some copies of the Polk County News containing the history of Polk County written by Carroll P. Rogers for the issues of March 27, April 3, and April 10th, 1936. If anyone has copies and would lend them to Mr. Peattie, please notify Seth M. Vining or Mr. Rogers. They will be returned when Mr. Peattie has finished with them . . .
