

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, JAN. 29, 1943

CURB REPORTER

Weather Thursday: high 43, low 34; rain 1.81 . . . H. B. Kelly, manager of the Naples Hotel, Naples, Fla., has renewed his subscription to The Bulletin. Naples is on the Gulf of Mexico where the Tamiami trail first meets the gulf after crossing the Everglades from Miami. It is a beautiful quiet place where tourists can enjoy the warm Florida climate and sunshine without the ballyhoo of the larger resorts.

. A card from the Army Air Forces Technical school, Scott Field, Ill., reports that Pvt. John E. Hooker, son of W. C. Hooker was graduated on January 23, from the parent radio school of the Air Forces Technical Training command, and is now qualified for duty as a member of a fighting bomber crew, under direction of Major General Walter R. Weaver.

. New Bulletin subscriptions going to Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln, Mission Hospital, Asheville, N. C.; Mrs. Psyche Frederick, 912 North Morgan street, Arlington, Va.; Pvt. David Holmes, 356 Brig. Air Service Sqdn. P. A. F. S. Lubbock, Texas; A. D. Foster Lynn; W. M. Hines, Defense Tariler Camp, Wilmington, N. C. Renewal for Alice Moore at Mill Spring; Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Whaling will return Tuesday from Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Russell Walcott reports seeing two

Continued on Back Page

MISS ELIZABETH ALLEN

The death of Miss Elizabeth Allen occurred Thursday night, in her eighty-fifth year. Miss Allen came from New York City to make her home in Tryon in 1939. She had formerly taught in the public schools of Geneva, N. Y., and Omaha, Nebraska; in the Milwaukee, Wisconsin State Normal school and served as principal of the Dunn county Normal school, Menomonie, Wis. She is survived by one sister, Miss Edith Allen of Tryon.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 5:30 at the home.

Friends please omit flowers.

Bruce Metcalf, A Lieutenant

Second Lieutenant John Bruce Metcalf, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Metcalf of Tryon, was graduated Thursday, January 28th, from the world's largest bombardier training area, the West Texas Bombardier Triangle composed of Midland, Big Spring and San Angelo. He has completed three months of training over target areas about the size of Nazi Germany.

The class during its training made use of many new techniques and items of equipment developed during the last few months to increase the accuracy of precision bombing.

Much of the bombardiers' practice bombing is now conducted from actual combat aircraft such as the sleek and speedy Vega Venturas, extensively used by the British in raids upon Nazi bases.

"Synthetic" training devices of all kinds entered into the cadets' deadly schooling. Among such

Continued on Back Page