

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 16. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, FEB. 2, 1943

CURB REPORTER

Weather Monday: High 60, low 39 . . . Mrs. John Phillips, who has been coming to Tryon for 41 years, and who was a subscriber to the Tryon Bee, is a new subscriber of the Tryon Daily Bulletin at Oak Hall cottage No. 3. Another new one is Cpl. Paul Justice, 34211116, AP0 43, care Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif. He and Max Feagan and Hugh Tessner of Columbus are in the New Caledonia area of the Pacific. He wrote his mother, Mrs. Archie Price, "If you can't get a Bulletin any other way send me a letter full once a week, for we (Max and I) surely do miss them." . . . Another new subscriber is Mrs. H. H. Carson of Lenoir; Mrs. Sanford Thompson, Pacific Grove, Calif., Robert Painter, Route One. Renewals for Miss Florence Cox, former Polk Home Demonstration Agent, now of Halifax, N. C., Miss Anne Clarke of Burlington, N. C., Mrs. W. W. Crapo, Detroit, Mich. First Officer (Captain) Helen Hedekin, 517 North Wild Olive St., Daytona Beach, Fla., Miss Mary Beach, Terre Haute, Ind. . . . Roosevelt back in Washington from his conference with Churchill in North Africa, withdraws nomination of Edward J. Flynn to be his personal ambassador to the Pacific islands. Russians continue to drive the Germans back to within 40 miles of Rostov.

B. F. LAWTER

Burgan Franklin Lawter, 61, son of the late M. R. Lawter and Sarah Jackson Lawter of Rutherford county, passed away in a hospital in Kansas City, Mo., January 31st at 1:30 a. m. He had made his home in Kansas City for several years.

Mr. Lawter is survived by his widow, the former, Mrs. Hal Horton of Kansas City; two daughters of Washington state; and one sister, Mrs. Selina McMurray, of Columbus.

Mr. Lawter was a prominent merchant in Columbus over 30 years ago.

SALUDA SAVING CANS

Chief H. G. Laughter, chairman of the Saluda Scrap Metal committee reports that his community is now saving tin cans. Major Bernard Sharp, County Salvage chairman, hopes that the practice will extend over the county.

It is much less difficult to remove the second end from cans if it is covered with a cloth.

If it were not worth the trouble to SAVE TIN CANS, the government would not be saying so much about it.

Honor Roll For Tryon School

Second Grade: Phyllis Dean Nanney, Genell Turner, Charles Arledge, Bobby Reynolds, Wallace Lankford, Kenneth Walker, John Floyd Peeler, Chaney Lee Comer, Elizabeth Emery, Edgar Ballew.

Third Grade: Ray Melton, Harvey Waters, Elliott Richards, Floyd Walker, Laura Ann Nanney, Lois Bridgeman, Dorothy Walker,

Continued on Back Page