Earl Calvert, 34439463, Med. Det. Station Hospital, Dow Field, Bangor, Maine . . . A report has been made to the Fellowship group of the fine church that some of the hotels and inns have church schedules out of date. One bulletin board is so old that it lists Dr. Clark as still pastor of the Congregational church, and the hours of the services are not the same. Will the inns and hotels please check their bulletin boards and remove the old church notices. It is misleading to new arrivals in Tryon. For correct church notices a clipping of each Saturday's Tryon Daily Bulletin could be posted instead . . . A big sea and air battle between American and Jap forces is being waged

Off for Induction

A large number of 'teen-age young men were sent to Camp Croft this morning for examination and induction into the armed forces. If they pass examinations the men will be allowed to choose the branch of service for which they are best qualified. Chairman Julian Hester of the Polk County Draft Board gave each man cigarettes as gifts from the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs.

Two of the men will be sent to special conscientious objectors camps.

Those leaving today included: John Willie Helton, Mill Spring; William Rufus Pack, Tryon; Samuel Boyce Weaver, Tryon; Maynard Madison Ownsby, Columbus; John Eckles Ford, Mill Spring; Jas.
