Post cards are on sale at local stores which are titled "A Grape Vineyard Near Tryon, N. C." The picture is of the Vollmer vineyard and home. A nice card.

E. A. "Gene" Turner who left Tryon sometime ago to resume his Y. M. C. A. work in China, has arrived in India where he will remain for several weeks to do special Y. M. C. A. work with Chinese soldiers stationed in India. Mr. Turner has been in the Orient over 25 years and is a friend of the Chinese president.

L. R. Hamilton, Field Price Officer of the OPA office in Asheville, arrived in Tryon Tuesday for an inspection of the local War Price and Rationing board which considered one of the best in United States.

Pvt. Stanley Glover, Somewhere in the Pacific, writes via of Seattle, Wash. that he had heard the Tryon Daily Bulletin was the smallest in the world. He is a collector of newspaper mast heads, and sent two air mail stamps for a copy of the Bulletin. He says his hobby has brought to him complete newspapers from different parts of the world.
