MRS. WEBB, 25, LYNN RESIDENT FATALLY HURT IN AUTO WRECK

Mrs. Annabella Webb, 25, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McFall of Lynn, was fatally injured in an automobile accident late Saturday night on the Asheville-Spartanburg highway about a mile and a half from Tryon near the rock cut.

Humey Wolfe, said to have been the driver of the machine, received injuries which were treated at St. Luke's hospital. He left after treatment.

Miss Lillian McFall, cousin of Mrs. Webb and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rans McFall, also of Lynn, received serious injuries in the accident. She remained at St. Luke's hospital in Tryon. Her condition was reported serious.

Palmer Newman, who was in the party, escaped serious injury. Katherine McFall, sister of Mrs. Webb, also escaped injury.

Officers who investigated the accident said Wolfe, who is also of Lynn and employed in Lyman, S. C., said that someone who was riding in the back seat of the car lighted a cigarette and that the glare from the match blinded him causing him to lose control of the car. It hit a telephone pole. The automobile was demolished.

Sheriff W. D. Hines and Deputies, Melton and Cochran, who with South Carolina officers are investigating the accident, took Wolfe into custody Sunday evening to await word from the South Carolina officers. He said that an inquest would probably be held (today) Monday. No charges have
