CURB REPORTER

Seed from a flamboyant tree of the South Pacific were sent by Dr. Joseph Placak, Jr., to his brother, Fred, in Tryon, who gave them to Tom Costa. Mr. Costa planted the seed and now has several flamboyant trees growing in his green house . . . At Kiwanis Tuesday Chas. J. Lynch, chairman of the committee for the care of invalids, announced that in addition to the 21 wheel chairs the club now has in use by invalids in this section, a number of crutches are being made to lend to temporary cripples. C. H. Helms who has a hobby workshop is making the crutches, Tryon Builders Supply Co., donated the lumber, W. E. Spangle the iron bolts to fasten the crutches, Arledge Hardware the varnish, and Buchanan's the brushes to do the painting. The only thing the club paid for was the rubber tips to go on the ends of the crutches. It just shows you how many people are glad to have a part in doing good for suffering humanity . . . And while there are a few who evade the draft there are many who are eager to do their part for their country and homeland. Some boys have lied about their ages in order to get in before they are old enough; thin boys have filled up on bananas just before being weighed; a number have had serious
