

5c PER COPY

$2.00 PER YEAR

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 16. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPT. 30, 1943

CURB REPORTER

Weather Wednesday: High 80, low 44 . . . R. Ben White, mayor pro tem, will run the town as acting mayor during the time Mayor F. P. Bacon is attending the Episcopal national convention in Cleveland, O. Also attending the convention besides Mayor Bacon are Mrs. Bacon, Bishop Frank Hale Touret, Mrs. J. Priestly Conyers, Jr., Rev. Mr. Burke of Hendersonville and the Rev. Mr. Cravner, formerly of Hendersonville . . . A list of the donors to the Firemen's Honor Roll Service Flag will be sent to the Tryon Volunteer Fire Department. This is the last week for any who wish to have a part in it . . . Tryon weather is perfect just now. Winter accidents are arriving daily and drivers are on the way. Subscriptions renewed for Mrs. T. A. Hopp, Painesville, O.; Mrs. Jno. A. Arledge, Columbus; and Mrs. James Maclay has changed hers from Tryon to New York City for two months; Miss M. E. Young has changed hers from Harwichport, Mass., to Tryon. . . . Carl Johnson has been smiles for several days over the birth of a thoroughbred Guernsey bull at his farm near Tryon. It is a blessed event with a shortage of all dairy and beef products staring the nation in the face . . . Colonel Arthur Smith, who has just presented the local men's service club with a

Continued on Back Page

With Our Armed Forces

Sgt. Hoke Jacobs has returned to Venice, Fla., after a visit with his mother, Mrs. Ellen Jacobs, and aunt, Miss Sallie Justice.

Here is a letter from Cpl. S. R. Rushing somewhere in England:

"Dear Mr. Vining:

"Just a line to let you know that I am receiving the Bulletin regularly and enjoy it very much. It never fails to attract the attention of the British and they seem to enjoy it as much as I, especially the ads of the grocery stores in town. An ad that mentions 'hams' causes quite a sensation and they run from one to another shouting 'Ham! Ham!' Very often they request a copy as a souvenir. I am always glad to oblige.

"I will appreciate it very much if you will change my Apo. to 515 Care P. M., New York City.

"Best wishes to everyone.

"Cpl. S. R. Rushing."

Sgt. Andrew Dean Shields is now getting his mail at Apo. 6, care P.M., San Francisco. He must be overseas.

Cpl. William Shields writes that his company, the 247th, was chosen the best at Camp Edwards, Mass., and was selected to escort Secretary of War Stimson and his party and Cpl. Shields was in the

Continued on Back Page