

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 17, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, JUNE 26, 1944

Bulletin Family of Readers

Looking over the Bulletin mailing list for out of town subscribers we see that Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Rector, Jr. are at 1909 9th St. Wichita Falls, Texas where Pvt. Rector is in the army air corps. Mrs. B. Feary Judson is at the Battery Park in Asheville. Miss Elizabeth Venable has moved from Jacksonville, Fla. to 81 Charlotte St., Asheville. Miss Evelyn Cromer is at 6 Pinckney St., Greenville, S. C. Miss Mabel Doggett is at 206 W. Farris Rd., Greenville, S. C. Dr. and Mrs. David L. Edsall moved from Cambridge to 180 Dudley Rd., Newton Centre, Mass. Congressman A. L. Bulwinkle changing his Bulletin from Washington, D. C. to Gastonia, N. C. New subscription for Alma Covil, HA 2/c, U.S. Naval Hospital (Staff), Charleston, S. C. Renewal for H. E. Walker Estill, S. C., for Pfc. Ray P. Dill, N.Y. (overseas); Sgt. Harold Taylor changed from Camp Butner to Apo, N.Y. Morgan Taylor moved from Ft. Myers, Fla. to Century 7 West 43rd St., New York. New one for Vested Kuykendall, H. A. S. Area A-1, Bks. 118, Company 831, Camp Peary, Va., New one for Roger Ellison, A. S. Co. 832 G. S., Area A-2, Bks 124, Camp Peary, Va. New one for Donald Henderson A. S. Area A-1 Brks. 118, Co. 831, Camp Peary, Va. New for W. T. Beatson, 1629 N. Oak St., Arlington, Va., Fred Thompson, A. S. Co. 836 G. S. Area A Brks. 112, Camp Peary, Virginia.

Other recent changes shows Pfc Joseph G. Walker (who was wounded in Africa) at Ward 306

Continued on Back Page

Lieut. Geo. Cooksey Missing In Action Over France

The War Dept. has notified Mr. and Mrs. George D. Cooksey that their son, Lieut. George D. Cooksey of the Army Air Force, has been missing in action over France since June 12th, six days after the invasion. Family and friends here are hopeful that he has landed among loyal Frenchmen and is safe.

On June 9th he wrote his mother in part, as follows:

"Guess Daddy is in Los Angeles by now. Was thinking maybe he was with the Isgrigs when the invasion broke. There's nothing that I can say about it that you haven't read in the papers or heard over the radio.

The people in Northern France must have rejoiced when they were freed once more. Can't you imagine the trouble they've had during these four years under German rule? It must have been hell for them. A person of eleven or twelve in 1940 must remember little of his old kind of living. I'm praying that it will all soon end, and we will have a better and greater world in which to live. I'm afraid though, that there is a tough battle ahead. The Jerries aren't going to give up easily. They wanted expansion and partially gained their wishes, but I guess the Germans will have to be content with their own little country one of these days. From the air most of these countries on the continent look much the same, and there is no comparison with our country. Their whole land is made up of small farms,

Continued on Back Page