

Mrs. J. E. Culbreth has arrived from Norfolk, Va., for an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wofford.

Pvt. Floy Greene has met his old pal, Rhine Metcalf in camp at Camp Blanding, Fla.

Miss Louise Carlson has returned to Allegheny General hospital, Pittsburgh, after a visit in Tryon.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Nelson Frierson of Columbia, S. C., have leased through E. Perry Manville the Derby cottage on Warrior road for the months of August and September. Dr. Frierson is with the College of Law at University of South Carolina.

Mrs. Walter C. Hill and daughter, Mrs. David Charters and son, have gone north for a visit. Mr. Hill is already at Saginaw, Michigan.

Pvt. Floyd Kirby is stationed at Denver, Colo.

We can help relieve the paper shortage if each of us discourages every unnecessary use of paper in packaging and wrapping, gets as much use as he possibly can out of each piece of paper, and then saves it for the waste paper collection.

The War Department doesn't permit publishers to mail free newspapers to members of the armed forces overseas, so be sure to have relatives or friends keep your subscription paid up.—tf.

Just Received A
Shipment of
FRESH FISH
—at—
FARTHING & COVINGTON

PEACHES FOR SALE: Sold by the bushel; for canning and pickling. Will deliver. Call Lefty Flynn at Little Orchard, Phone 254.—Adv. 20tf.

SALUDA REAL ESTATE

G. Harrison Bridgeman announces the opening of an office in Saluda.

Our advertising is bringing in prospective buyers. Get your property listed with us promptly if you want to sell.

PHONE 691 SALUDA
MASON & BRIDGEMAN
(Over Post Office)—Saluda

—YOU CAN HELP AT RED CROSS—

BUTLER'S DAIRY

Phone 429