CURB REPORTER

Weather Friday: high 84, low 64, rain .12; Saturday high 84, low 56; Sunday high 89, low 57. Just look at the 56 and 57 low temperatures for the South in July. Here's a news item from a fellow who moved here recently from Arizona: "Early this morning Frederick Gerken skated over and returned Wayne Creasman's thermometer." Now it was not that cold; but you could see the fog from your breath as on a cold fall morning . . . Mrs. A. W. Brintnall has contributed the following books to the service men at Moore General hospital: "Boys Book of Insects" by Teale, and "The Wind in the Willows" and "How to Draw Birds" . . . The Charlotte Observ. of Sunday had a picture of Lt. Hurl E. O'Shields and a story about him being missing in action since July 7 over Germany. He was a native of Shelby and son of Mrs. Jessie O'Shields of 2228 East Seventh St., Charlotte, and a brother of Matt O'Shields and Dan O'Shields of Tryon. His mother also lived in Tryon when she was hostess at Mimosa Inn. Lt. O'Shields had been overseas since April of this year as pilot of a flying fortress, "The Feudin' Wagon." He had just been awarded the Air Medal and an Oak Leaf Cluster. Announcement has been made at Wright Field, O. of the promo-
