

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 17. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPT. 7, 1944

CURB REPORTER

Weather Wednesday: High 91, low 63 A camp show at Tryon Theatre will be put on by soldiers from Camp Croft, Sept. 21, at 8 p. m., according to Mrs. M. C. Rogers, hostess of the Tryon USO and vice-chairman of the United War Fund campaign. There will be an orchestra, singing and dancing. Admission will be $1, benefit of the United War Fund. A special movie will also be shown. . . . On the 22nd, the following day, a number of Tryon merchants will give 10 per cent of their gross sales to the United War Fund. Polk County's quota is over $4,800. That's a lot of money, 50c for every man woman and child in the county . . .

Chas. Nessmith reports that work is going forward on the Landrum theatre and that she hopes to open it about Sept. 15.

About 18 boys have signed up to play football for Tryon high school. They will meet tonight at 7 o'clock at Harmon Field. Robert Barber is manager. C. M. Eargle will coach . . . The war news shows steady progress toward Germany. The Russians have reached Yugoslavia and expect to cut off all Germans in Greece. The army has announced that as soon as Germany is defeated soldiers not needed will be discharged. Chas. J. Lynch, Chairman of Civilian Defense has ap-

Continued on Back Page

Columbus News

Mrs. Frank Edwards had as her guest last week, her mother, Mrs. Cathey, of Charlotte. Mrs. Cathey returned to her home last Saturday.

Archie A. Feagan is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Walker in Estill, S. C., this week.

Caton Dedmond is home for a few days from Camp Sibert.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyce McDowell made a business trip to Columbus Saturday and visited relatives at the same time.

Mrs. J. M. Hodge is visiting the J. A. Feagans.

Miss Mary Lawter of Lynn spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Lindsey Smith.

Master Bobby Barber, of Hendersonville, spent last week with his grandfather, F. M. Burgess.

Mrs. Earl Weaver and baby are home from St. Luke's hospital, the baby's name is James Larry.

John T. and Edwin Smith spent the week-end and Labor Day with relatives here.

Mrs. Barron White and son, Barry, returned Monday to Detroit.

Malcolm Clark, who has been visiting home folks, returned this week to his work in Wilmington.

Our community has suffered two real losses recently in the deaths of Mrs. Birch Jackson and Mr. Lindsey Taylor. Mrs. Jackson had lived here only a few years, but had made many real friends. Mr. Taylor has lived here a long time, has reared his family here. His widow, Mrs. Nannie Owens Taylor is left with two little girls and one son, who is in training at Camp Peary, Va. She has two mar-

Continued on Back Page