CURB REPORTER

Weather Thursday: High 87, low 68 . . . . Allies meeting stiffer resistance in France and Belgium but continue to make progress. The city of Metz on road to Germany has been captured. Allies moving up in Italy and Russians moving westward in Greece. . . . Republican Candidate Dewey says Democrats fear peace, because they are afraid of their inability to get this country going again after the war. New invasion expected in the Pacific . . . The Isham Hendersons are at Alameda, Calif., where Mr. Henderson is in the Navy, and Mrs. Henderson has a civil service job in the supply and accounting department. She keeps tab on all the planes, one of them recently was the Mars, the biggest plane. While the Mars was in port there it was repainted. It took 500 pounds of paint to do the job . . . In spare time the Hendersons are taking in the sights around San Francisco, the Golden Gate Bridge, seals sunning on the rocks in the bay, gift shops, etc. . . . Mrs. Reginald Grenfell, daughter of Mrs. M. B. Flynn, has been entertaining soldiers and sailors from England to Africa, singing, acting and spreading good cheer where she could. She won special recognition recently from the following poem:
