The variety show on stage will be presented by troupe headed by Lt. J. Gilbert Hogan. Lt. Hogan is known to West Coast radio and stage audiences as Gilbert Reade having been featured on such radio shows as "Grand Jury Investigator", "Big Town" and "Why Do We Believe It". The master of ceremonies will be the popular Sgt. Bill Wilson, outstanding tap-dancing star who numbers the lovely Joan Leslie of motion picture fame among his former dancing pupils. Also featured in this revue will be Sgt. Lilestrand virtuoso of the violin; Cpl. Bill Judd, popular comedian; Miss Betty Jo Blackwell, petite singer of blues; Pvt. Dean Benet, ace of acrobatics; Pvt. Jimmy LaRocca, Camp Croft's baritone balladeer; Miss Dottie Blackwell, "Camp Croft's pin-up girl" and darling of the dance; Pvt. Bill Schweitzer, famous accordionist formerly with NBC's "Breakfast Club", and Pvt. Phil Masi, "clown prince of comedy". The 158th AGF dance band (15 men formerly with name bands), under direction of T/Sgt. Harry Jones will provide the danceable rhythms.

Young Women's Business circle of the Tryon First Baptist church will meet tonight at 8 o'clock. Miss Pearline Parker will be in charge of the program.

To those who are in quest of entertainment for guests, for family or for social organizations, I am offering my services in Shakespearean readings, in miscellaneous poems, and humorous skits and sketches, also dramatic studies in story telling. Anyone interested might make themselves known to the Bulletin.—Dwight Smith. Ad2
