

DuRant New President Of Chamber of Commerce

R. S. DuRant, general manager of the Avant Electric Co., was elected president of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce at a meeting of the Board of Directors Monday night. R. E. Brantley, manager of Tryon Theatre, was elected vice-president and Seth M. Vining, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. DuRant who was vice-president last year, succeeds Tom Costa. He is a former president of the Rotary club and has been interested in the improvement of the community in general. Mr. Brantley is also a former president of the Rotary club, the Merchants Association, the softball league, and is a member of the Tryon-Saluda school board.

There are nine directors of the Chamber of Commerce. Each year three members' terms expire. This year the terms of L. F. Buchanan, Ernest Kerhulas and W. M. Spivey expired. The object of the staggered terms is to bring in new men from time to time. Mr. Spivey as town manager, is a director of the chamber of commerce by virtue of his office and was reelected. The two new members are Fred S. Owen of Owen's Pharmacy and Mr. Brantley.

THE BEAN BRIGADE

The following boys and girls from Columbus school are members of the bean brigade which attracted state-wide attention last week when they saved a bean crop:

Bob Gibson, Grace Burnett, Frank Burgess, Charles Jordon, Kay Wilson, Margaret Hines, Luke McIntyre, Jean Ormond, Bobbie Ramsey, Sara Max Ormond, Larry Constance, Pernumia Atkins, Alvin West, Christine Green, John Clarke, Fannie Foster, Alvin Constance, Rachel Clarke, Larry Wilson.

Joe Wilkerson, proprietor of Tryon Cafe, fell Monday morning on a slippery floor that had just been mopped, and broke his knee cap. He is in a Spartanburg hospital for treatment.

STORES TO CLOSE

At a meeting of the Merchants with the Chamber of Commerce Monday night, the stores voted to close every Wednesday afternoon through the winter season except during weeks when there is a holiday and the two weeks prior to Christmas.
