TRYON, N. C., WED., OCTOBER 11, 1944

CURB REPORTER

The first part of the dove season closes the 15th, then the bear and wild boar season begins around Franklin in Nantahala Forest, bear hunting will also be open in Pisgah Forest, Asheville, and the deer season begins in Pisgah Nov. 6th to 30th. . . . Two days of horse running races, October 13th and 14th, Friday and Saturday, will be features of the Spartanburg Fair this week. Manager D. C. Todd of Tryon is eager for Tryon horse lovers to see the thoroughbreds in action at the Greater Spartanburg Fair. . . . Miss Jean Derby, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Derby of Tryon, has been selected as floor leader in her hall at Woman's College University of North Carolina, to direct activities of the War Service League, a student agency for coordinating the contribution of the Woman's College students to the war effort.

Tryon is the smallest town in the U.S.A. with a chartered U.S.O.. The Tryon U.S.O. Service Men's Club committee has been recognized as the official U.S.O. committee in Tryon and is authorized to conduct U.S.O. services in conformity with the policies and regulations prescribed by the president and board of directors of the United Service Organizations, Inc. The charter is signed by Chester J. Barnard, president.
