Francis Chapman Home

S|Sgt. Francis Chapman arrived home Friday from England where he has been for the past 13 months in the army air force as a togglier. He will be here until Nov. 6 when he reports to the Miami Redistribution Center. Sgt. Chapman was wounded in the left shoulder while flying over enemy territory; and one time his plane was so high in the air that he had to be treated for frozen feet. For his achievements he has received the Presidential citation, the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal, Oak Leaf Clusters, Purple Heart and the Good Conduct Medal. Sgt. Chapman entered the army air corps soon after graduation from Tryon High School. While here he was a member of the football and basketball teams and did interior decorating.
