WITH OUR ARMED FORCES

WAR HEROES AT ROTARY

Mayor F. P. Bacon had charge of the Rotary program Friday and had as his guests three sergeants of the Army Air Forces who had completed their required missions over enemy territory, in three different theaters of war.

S|Sgt. Francis Chapman, who recently returned from the European theater of operations was the chief speaker, and he held his audience spell bound with the thrilling experiences he and his bomber crew have had in bombing Germany and occupied Belgium and France. Sgt. Chapman also exhibited a number of interesting souvenirs brought back from the war. For his bravery and devotion to duty he has received a number of medals including the D|C, Purple Heart, Good Conduct and a number of Oak Leaf Clusters with the Air Medal.

Another guest was S|Sgt Francis Pickens Durham who completed his missions in the Mediterranean theater, and who had addressed the Rotary some weeks ago.

The third guest was T|Sgt. Glenn Foster of the 14th Air Force in China. He arrived home on Thursday for a visit with his wife and other relatives. He made his tour of operations against the Weather: Friday high 71, low 54; Saturday high 72, low 47; Sunday high 68, low 44 . . . It's cool . . . Miss Helen Stearns and Miss Mary Carpenter are occupying Lynncote Lodge and as Miss Carpenter is librarian, it might be well to give her phone number, 209-J. . . . Telegram from William B. Umstead, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee says, "In my opinion this is the most important election ever held in America. I ask you to use your influence to impress the citizens of our state the vital importance of voting on next Tuesday Tryon Football team will play Asheville B. at McCormick Field in Asheville Wednesday afternoon How ye doin'?" is a greeting met often on the street. How you are doing financially is important now in prosecuting the war. If you feel that you owe one of 50 of the best fixed men in the county, it will take the purchase on your part of $1,000 E war bonds to fill Polk County's quota of $51,000. The overall quota is $226,000, but that includes other types of bonds. Maybe you are one man in a hundred; then, you'll have to buy $500 worth of bonds; but since there are about 10,000 people in the county, each man, woman and child will have to buy $50 worth of bonds to meet our quota; if
