

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

5c PER COPY

TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, NOV. 21ST, 1944

CURB REPORTER

Weather Monday: High 55, low 37, rain .57 . . . Miss Ruby Brannon of Tryon Route 1, has been promoted to second lieutenant with the WACS at Moore General Hospital. She and another candidate graduated from the Physio Therapy Department Sunday morning at 10:15. Among those present at the service from Tryon was Mrs. Rachel Slocumb, an expert in the Occupational Therapy Department. Lieut. Brannon is at home for 10 days leave before going to her assignment at Camp Shelby, Miss.

. . . Mrs. Evelyn Jennings Lavender has entered Battle Hill Sanatorium, Southwest, Atlanta, Ga., to take training for practical nursing. . . Bessie Jane Wilson, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Wilson of Mill Spring has just bought her sixth War Bond in the 6th War Bond loan campaign. She bought all her bonds with pennies saved over long periods of time. It took 1,875 pennies to buy the new bond, but the bond will return to her 2,500 pennies or $25 . . . Lewis Lindsey of the Tryon Police Force, has resigned to accept a job with the Standard Oil Co. . . The first group of pictures of Polk County men in the service will be shown this Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at Tryon Theatre, and each week for ten weeks on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. Pictures of the local service men

Continued on Back Page

Community Thanksgiving Service, Thursday at 10

The Tryon Union Thanksgiving service will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Episcopal Church of the Holy Cross. The Thanksgiving sermon, "Our Country", will be preached by the Rev. T. P. Horgler, pastor of the Tryon Presbyterian church.

Tryon churches participating in the service are the First Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian, Congregational and the Episcopal. All the ministers of these churches will have a part in the service.

A feature of the program will be two anthems sung by a combined choir of 50 voices from the five churches under the direction of Dr. R. A. Laslett Smith.

Christian Science Society Thanksgiving Service

The Christian Science Society will hold its regular Thanksgiving service Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at the Lanier library. The subject will be "Thanksgiving."

Stores Open Wednesday

As the stores of Tryon will be closed Thursday for Thanksgiving the stores of Tryon will not take their half holiday this Wednesday.

LIBRARY CLOSED

The Lanier library will be closed Thursday for Thanksgiving as usual. Books due on that day will be renewed as of Nov. 25th, says Miss Carpenter the librarian.

Subscription to Bulletin out of county, one year $4; in county $3.