Frank Wall Coming Friday

Cpl. Frank Wall of the U. S. Marines will arrive home early Friday morning from Atlanta, according to a telephone message to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fortner. Cpl. Wall, one of Tryon's High School star athletes, left school right after Pearl Harbor and joined the Marines as quickly as he could. He was accepted on Dec. 16th and was one of the first Marines in the invasion of Guadalcanal in the Southwest Pacific. This is his first furlough home since 1941. He has been wounded twice and has been decorated with the Purple Heart and honored for 'gallantry in action in defense of his country.

AT ROTARY FRIDAY

Carl Johnson will be in charge of the Rotary club meeting Friday at Oak Hall hotel. The chief speaker will be Mrs. Walter C. Hill of Tryon.
