Sunnydale Tax Schedule
On After 9 P. M.

Ernest Kerhulas, proprietor of Sunnydale announces that a new arrangement has been made where-by persons wanting to eat and not dance can go to Sunnydale and order their meals and drinks between the hours of six and nine o'clock and pay only for the amount of food ordered plus a three per cent sales tax.

After nine o'clock the federal tax on cabarets will go into effect and 20 per cent will be added to all bills. In order to take care of this increased overhead a minimum charge of $1 goes into effect after nine o'clock each night.

We are trying to cooperate in every way to make dancing possible at Sunnydale without making a hardship for those who want to bring their friends here and enjoy a good meal without having to pay federal tax for dancing.

We serve a la carte from 6 to 9 every night except Mondays. Sunday: regular dinner at 1 p. m.

For special meals and parties please make reservations. Phone 170 or 223.
