

County News

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smythe who have been staying some time with Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Kirby, have returned to their home in Winter Garden, Fla.

Mrs. Minnie Williams visited Mrs. E. G. Thompson recently. Mrs. Thompson has been in ill health for several months.

Pvt. John Edwards had a short furlough recently and spent the time with his wife and family here.

On stopping by at A. L. Allen's we find in his possession 16 little puppies.

Bill Bates and Gaither Thompson left Tuesday for Portsmouth, Va., where they have jobs. Gaither Johnson returned several months ago from the South Pacific where he spent two years fighting to take the Solomon Islands and others, discharged from the army due to ill health. He still has a desire to help his Uncle Sam.

The first harbingers of spring are here, they came by mail the first of the month. The lovely, bright colored, seed catalogs, from different companies. And already gardeners are planning bigger and better Victory Gardens for '45. Gardens just packed with color, sunshine, sweet smells and flavors. Uncle Sam will need more food than ever this year, there will be less for the home front. So the safest way to make sure of eating is to grow as much food as possible in our own gardens.

Mrs. Alfred H. Rzeppa of Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., came down last week for a few days at her home, Tri-Branch Farm.

Misses Zelda and Juanita Edwards stopped by our way awhile one Sunday recently.

Miss Sallie Carpenter received an announcement and clippings of the marriage of her nephew, Dupree Sitton, of Greenville, S. C., to Miss Lilla Freeman. The marriage was solemnized in a ring ceremony at a Baptist church in Greenville. A program of wedding music, soloist with organ accompaniment, was presented during the ceremony.

If you want a delightful, delicious, sugarless cake for the week-end, try Lynn Chambers' Angel Cake. The recipe given in January 5, Polk County News. A cake and icing too, made with light corn syrup. It's grand.
