CURB REPORTER

Weather Friday: High 52, low 34, rain .46; Saturday high 57, low 39, rain .04; Sunday high 56, low 41, rain .03 . . . The Russians continue their sweep across Poland and are now 175 miles from Berlin. Allies plugging along on western front, but are at a standstill in Italy . . . Critics say President Roosevelt's inaugural address was one of his best speeches. Senator Truman took oath as Mr. Roosevelt's third vice-president. There have been more vice-presidents of the U. S. than presidents. Some president's didn't have a vice-president . . . A columnist reporting in the Christian Science Monitor on Washington Affairs, especially the National Education Association conference, writes: "Clifford Berryman, Washington Star cartoonist, did the drawing for Miss Charl O. Williams, conference manager, who said she had often 'felt like a dog' but would have to rely on Mr. Berryman to capture the feeling on paper . . . If you want Polk County to go over the top in the Infantile Paralysis campaign send your check to Mrs. F. W. Sprague or to Miss Gladys Hamrick, Co-Chairman . . . R. H. Brady, instead of the Kiwanis Lieut.-Gov., will be the speaker at the Kiwanis club Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall. Mr. Brady is a former president of the Tryon club . . . In renewing her sub-

WITH OUR ARMED FORCES

Fred Hutchinson, formerly of Tryon, who married Miss Estelle Brownlee, also of Tryon, has been promoted according to the article from the Hendersonville Times-News:

A U. S. Troop Carrier Base, European theatre of operation.—Master Sergeant Fred J. Hutchinson of Hendersonville, flight chief in a squadron of Major-General Paul L. Williams' U. S. troop carrier forces, was recently promoted from technical sergeant to the grade of master sergeant.

Hutchinson is the son of Mrs. Roxie Rutchinson of Druid Hills apartments, Hendersonville, and his wife, Mrs. Daisy Estelle Hutchinson, resides in Swannanoa.

In charge of a number of his unit's big C-47 planes and ground crews, Hutchinson supervises major repairs, regular maintenance and routine inspections of the aircraft. Overseas 19 months he was formerly an aerial engineer in which capacity he earned the air medal for participating in the invasion of Sicily when his squadron hauled paratroopers to the scene of action. He served in North Africa, Sicily and Italy prior to arriving in the European theatre, where his unit, the 61st troop carrier group, veteran overseas organization of invasion airborne campaigns, took part in the open-
