Charlie Walker Killed In Action In France; Was Wounded 3 Times

Mr. and Mrs. W. Martin Walker of Mill Spring, Route 2, have been notified of the death of their son, Pfc. Charlie R. Walker. They received the following telegram Monday, Feb. 19th:

"The Secretary of War desires me to express his deep regrets that your son, Private First Class Charlie R. Walker, was killed in action on 4th February in France. Confirming letter follows. Ulio, the Adjutant General."

Pfc. Walker entered the service in September, 1943. He received his induction training at Camp Blanding, Fla., where he remained for about five months before being sent overseas. He took part in the invasion of Anzio beachhead in Italy in April, 1944, where he was wounded and was awarded the Purple Heart. A few months later in October he was with the American forces in the invasion of southern France, where he was wounded the second time and distinguished himself for outstanding achievement. He was in the hospital for two months for treatment of his second wound and was put back into active service last Dec. Pfc. Walker was a member of General Patch's Seventh Army.

The deceased has another brother in the service, Paul Walker of the U. S. Navy, somewhere in the Pacific.

Holland Brady, Jr., Loses Razor In Mozelle River

Using captured German stationery, Holland Brady, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Brady, writes the following letter to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ward:

January 9, 1945.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Ward:

I received last night your letter of December 1st, carrying the Season's Greetings. I was very happy to receive it. Mother wrote to me that you and Alene had started shopping one day and to leave your car at Saluda due to the icy roads. I'm glad nothing more serious occurred on those bad roads.

It might interest you to know that this paper is issued to German soldiers. However, our outfit captured quite a bit of it, and now "G. I's" are writing on it. Such are the fortunes of war.

Do you remember that excellent pocket razor you gave me when I was graduated from school? I carried it to college, and then through my army days. Then, during the capture of Metz by our division, I lost it in the Moselle River! I thought you might be interested in that little occurrence. Please write again soon.

Sincerely, Holland.

Sgt. and Mrs. Dutton Beatson of Key Field, Miss., are here ten days' visit with relatives.

Max Jolley, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jolley of Mill Spring is a patient at the hospital.
