

SNOW IN OHIO

Dr. J. E. Derby had charge of the Tryon Kiwanis club program Tuesday and entertained the members with an account of his recent trip to Ohio, where the snow was piled high, and traffic conditions were terrible. Dr. Derby spoke of business conditions and professional changes that have taken place since he left Ohio about 15 years ago.

Rev. and Mrs. C. P. Burnett had as guest during the week-end, Warrant Officer John Crewz, a native of Kentucky, who spent the past three years overseas in North Africa and Italy in Capt. Robert Burnett's company. Capt. Burnett is a son of Rev. and Mrs. Burnett. Just before leaving for Columbia, S. C., where he was to get married on Tuesday, Officer Crewz told Mr. Burnett that the men certainly did enjoy the Tryon Daily Bulletins received overseas by Capt. Burnett.

Subscription to Bulletin out of county, one year $4; in county $3.

Miss Nellie Plumley left St. Luke's hospital Monday for her home in Tryon.

FOOD SALE of St. Agnes Guild Monday, March 12th, Parish House at 4 p. m. This is a new date instead of March 18th, as originally announced. Watch for details of choice foods that will be of-

I'm just a little dog, but I've got something to say
To the person who was yipping the other day.
Please teach people to know night from day—
And then to go outside and play—
And if they'll only cease to prattle
Out of me they won't hear a peep
I've got a chain around my neck
And if I didn't have by heck,
I'd bite off a leg or two:
Let that be a warning to you.
Sometime they're going to turn me loose,
And I bet folks will vamoose.
And if everybody will stay home and sleep,
Out of me you won't hear a peep.
—Adv't. paid.

CIVIC THEATRE

LANDRUM, SOUTH CAROLINA

THURSDAY & FRIDAY

"The Dramatic Shock of the Century"

'The Master Race'

—WITH—

George Coulouris Stanley Ridges and Osa Massen.

—Added—

MUSICAL, FOX MOVIE TONE NEWS