

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor.

6c PER COPY

TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, MARCH 29, 1945

"Jake" Derby In Attacks On German Supply Lines

With A 12th AAF B-25 Group in the Mediterranean Theatre.—William J. Derby, 21, of Charlotte, N. C., has been promoted to staff sergeant while serving as an engineer gunner with a 12th Air Force B-25 Mitchell bombardment group operating in the Mediterranean Theatre of operations.

Sergeant Derby's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Derby, reside in Tryon, N. C., and his wife, Hope, lives at 2174 Colony Road, Charlotte, N. C.

An alumnus of Tryon High School, Sergeant Derby was attending The Citadel at Charleston, S. C., prior to his enlistment in the Air Forces in December, 1942. He received his army technical training at Ft. Myers, Florida.

Sergeant Derby's B-25 Mitchell group has been engaged in the "Battle of the Brenner" since

Continued on Back Page

WALK WAY OVER TOP IN RED CROSS DRIVE

At noon Wednesday, March 28, contributions to the Polk County Red Cross War Fund amounted to $9,313.82. Included in this total are the following: Employees and management of the Southern Mercantizing Co., $271.86; Midway White Oak community, $138.05; Green River, $48.50; Sandy Plains, $97.84; Stony Knoll (colored), $6.50; Sunshine and Green River Plantation, $66; Pea Ridge, $75.90; Hickory Grove, $66.82. The campaign will continue until April 1. "Ten thousand is in sight!" says Roll Call Chairman Charles G. Sewall.

HOUND SHOW, HUNTER TRIAL TICKETS ON SALE

By Bob Leighton.

Tickets for the Tryon Riding & Hunt club' annual Hound Show and Hunter Trials were placed on sale at Missildine's yesterday. The tickets, which sell for one dollar, purchase admission to both the hound show in the morning at Harmon Field and to the Hunter Trials on Mrs. Tracy's property in the afternoon. This should make a full and pleasant day for those visitors in Tryon interested in hounds and horses.

The five classes to be held at the Hunter Trials in the afternoon of April 4th, are:

1. Green Hunter Class—60% performance, 40% confirmation; 3 and 4 year old horses eligible, if older, must be passed by committee. Entry fee is $1.

2. Ladies' Hunter Class—Performance, manners and hunting soundness to count. Entry fee $1.

3. Pairs of Hunters—Performance as a pair to count—similarity of pairs not to be judged. Entry fee $1.

4. Pleasure Horse Class—No person eligible for the hunter classes allowed to be judged in this class. To be judged at a walk, trot, canter and over a special course. No jumping—manners and suitability for trail riding especially to be considered. Entry fee $1.

5. Open Hunter Class—Only performance and hunting soundness to count. Entry fee $1.

Mrs. Mary Jackson of Kiswic, Va., will be on hand to judge.

We wish the visitors to take special notice of the pleasure

Continued on Back Page