

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor.

6¢ PER COPY

TRYON, N. C. MONDAY, APRIL 2ND, 1945

CURB REPORTER

Weather Friday: High 83, low 55; Saturday high 83, low 59; Sunday high 77, low 51. . . . During the week-end the Americans invaded Okinawa Island, 325 miles from Japan. Russians are 22 miles from Vienna. Two U. S. armies encircle rich Ruhr. Patton's army 162 miles from Berlin. Allies captured thousands of prisoners during the week-end. . . . Mayor Fred D. Marshall of Columbia, S. C., will be the guest of Chas. J. Lynch during the hound show and hunter trials, on Wednesday, April 4th. He will be accompanied by assistant mayor, George W. Collins, who will also be Mr. Lynch's guest. . . . Miss Frances Bankford was honored Sunday at Erskine church Sunday school for her record in having not missed a single Sunday in attendance for nine years. . . .

Dr. McClure At Kiwanis

Dr. James G. K. McClure, president of the Farmers Federation, will be the guest speaker at the Tryon Kiwanis club on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall. He will discuss the freezer locker program. Chas. J. Lynch is in charge of the program.

Every news item you send to the Bulletin helps to make a more interesting letter to some friend in the armed forces.

WITH OUR ARMED FORCES

PRISONER OF WAR

Mrs. Maggie Guffey of Columbus, has received word that her son, Tech. Sgt. John L. Justice, is a prisoner of war in Germany. His wife, Pvt. Louise Justice of Camp Walters, Texas, was previously notified that he was missing in action Dec. 17th in Germany.

Sgt. Justice entered the service in early 1940 and received his basic training at Columbia, S. C. For the past three years was an instructor at Camp Walters, Tex., Camp Hood, Tex., and Camp Blanding, Fla. He was sent overseas last October after receiving final training at Camp Atterbury, Indiana.

Sgt. Justice was a member of the 424th Infantry of the 106th Division of which two regiments were severely reported mauled during the Allied reverses of last December, on the Western front.

* * * *

Promoted to First Lieutenant

Pecos Army Air Field, Pecos, Texas.—First Lieutenant George D. Cooksey, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Cooksey, Sr., of Tryon, N. C., has been promoted to his present rank from second lieutenant at the Pecos Army Air Field where he is stationed, according to an announcement by Colonel Harold D. Smith, commanding officer of the post.

---Continued on Back Page---