CURB REPORTER

Weather Monday: High 72, low 54, rain .86 . . . Tomorrow is a big day for Tryon with the world's big hound show starting at 10:30 at Harmon Field, and the popular hunter trials at Mrs. Tracy's in the Hunting Country at 2:30. A large number of spring visitors who have been coming to Tryon for years, are on hand to enjoy the event which is put on for local entertainment. . . . One of Tryon's well-known horseback riders, Carter Wilkie Brown, who is now riding army transport planes, has been promoted from second to first lieutenant with the Army Air Forces in Italy. . . . That reminds me of the good work being done here by the Civil Air Patrol which teaches a lot of the fundamentals of flying. Young boys and girls of Polk County have an opportunity to join this group and get advance information and some of the same training that is received in the flying schools. Lieut. C. D. Stevens of Tryon is head of the local unit which meets tonight at 8 o'clock at the Tryon High School gymnasium. . . .

The requirements of our armed forces are growing. There will be a little less meats, lard, fats, and sugar but nothing to get alarmed about. There will be a wholesome diet for everyone, says WFA.

Hound Show Wednesday

The famous Tryon Hound Show will be held Wednesday morning at 10:30 at Harmon Field under the management of C. W. Ballenger. The Tryon Hound Show during normal times is one of the largest in America and draws entries and spectators from many distant states. The event is sponsored by the Tryon Riding & Hunt club.

Hunter Trials Wednesday

The annual Hunter Trials sponsored by the Tryon Riding & Hunt club will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 over the Bob Leighton course at the old LeMort place, now known as Mrs. E. W. Tracy's "Corn Crib." Details of the event including names of classes, riders, horses, etc., are published on the inside of this issue of the Bulletin. Turn to it for further information. Robert Leighton is manager of the Hunter Trials. Mrs. Mary Jackson of Kiswic, Va., an outstanding authority, will be the judge.
