

SPECIAL NOTICE

If the official announcement of the surrender of Germany is not made today or tonight the special program at Tryon Theatre will be held at 11 a. m., on the day following the announcement.

As this is being written the radios are playing patriotic music while waiting for the official announcement of the end of the war in Europe. 30 minutes after the siren sounds the people will go to the theatre for the special program.

Mrs. Jack Metcalf and baby, Linda, of Brunswick, Ga., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Metcalf. Sgt. Jack Metcalf is on Okinawa Island and writes that he is O. K., and that things are going well. He is sending home some packages.

Guests at Oak Hall over the week-end include Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lyles, from Asheville; Geo. Hutchinson, Chicago; and the following from Camp Croft, S. C.: Miss Phyllis Young, Cpl. V. J. Morreale, Pvt. Geo. Garent, Pvt. S. A. Edwards, Cpl. C. H. Willard, Pvt. G. Fred Mein, Pvt. Leonard Parker, C. R. Shirley.

Municipal elections will be held Tuesday in Tryon, Columbus and Saluda.

The flags of the United Nations are being put up today noon at the flag poles by the Boy Scouts.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tansal, who were married Saturday at Glencoe, Ill., are arriving today noon to be guests at Pine Crest Inn.

David Moore (colored) of Tryon was admitted at St. Luke's hospital on Friday.

Extra copies of The Bulletin on sale at the office for 5c each.

Listings Wanted

We have the names of a number of people who want to buy property in Tryon. Now is the time to sell.

If you have something, please list your property with

TOM COSTA

TRYON REAL ESTATE