

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor.

5c PER COPY

TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, MAY 17, 1945

CURB REPORTER

Weather Wednesday: High 84, low 59, rain .16 . . . Postmaster R. O. Andrews announces that the Tryon office has on sale the new five cents postage stamps commemorating the United Nations conference at San Francisco. The stamps are blue in color and about the size of the Special Delivery stamps. They have the words in paranthesis (Toward United Nations April 25th, 1945) a wreath, and the words Franklin D. Roosevelt. U. S. Postage, 5 cents. Postmaster Andrews says he received 500 Wednesday at the request of many patrons. Stamp collectors are expected to be among the larger purchasers of these special stamps . . . George W. Whitehead, secretary-elect of the Tryon Rotary club, will be in charge of the Rotary program on every day at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall Hotel . . . The Spartanburg Herald states that Register of Deeds C. W. Ballenger, has cut the charge of filing veterans discharge papers from $1 to 50c. Some counties don't charge anything, but in those counties the register of deeds gets a salary. In Polk he does not, and has to run his office on a fee system, says Mr. Ballenger. . . . 2,000 gas coupons lost from Spartanburg Rationing office. . . . James F. Crook, made editor emeritus of Spartanburg Herald, and Publisher William A. Townes takes over the

—Continued on Back Page—

Commencement Exercises At Mill Spring

Principal J. W. Gantt has announced the following commencement program for Mill Spring school:

The graduation sermon will be delivered on Sunday evening, May 20th, at 8:30, by the Rev. Mr. N. A. Melton.

On Thursday evening, May 24th, at 8:30, Mrs. J. W. Gantt will present her piano students in a public recital.

On Friday evening, May 25th, at 8:30 regular graduation exercises. Commencement address to be delivered at that time by Hon. W. H. McDonald.

All of the above programs will be presented from the high school auditorium.

ERSKINE AT KIWANIS

Carroll P. Rogers had charge of the Kiwanis club program on Tuesday at 1 p. m. at Oak Hall hotel. The guest speaker was Ralph C. Erskine, the author and historian, who outlined the dangers of allowing governments to do too much for the people; giving them jobs, and regulating their lives, which results in taking away the stimulus of private initiative, and eventually places the people under the complete control of governmental agencies.

ARTHUR SAIN

Arthur Sain, about 55 years old, prominent Silver Creek farmer, dropped dead early this morning, presumably from a heart attack. He is survived by his widow and several children. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.