

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor.

6c PER COPY TRYON, N. C. FRIDAY, MAY 25TH, 1945

CURB REPORTER

Weather Thursday: High 82, low 53 . . . U. S. Army making progress in Philippine Islands. Himmler, the gestapo chief, commits suicide soon after his arrest by British. He had a vial of poison in his mouth which he swallowed when a doctor examined him . . . President Truman wants to reorganize the executive department of the government . . . 200,000 autos to be made this year if men and material are available. Spartanburg Herald says 10,000 workers will be needed to harvest peaches in this area . . . Miss Maude Waddell, prominent Southern writer, has arrived in Hendersonville . . . On the home front the following firms and employees have bought war bonds in the Seventh War Loan campaign: Buchanan's, Rector's Laundry and Cleaners, Farthing & Covington, The Ballenger Co., Tryon Bank & Trust Co., Egerton & Co., Mill Spring, Arledge Hardward and Missildine's . . . Nelson Jackson, Jr., vice-president of the Piedmont Boy Scout Council of 11 counties, a director of Region 6 for the Carolinas, Georgia and Florida, was recently awarded the silver antelope, for being the outstanding Scouter of North Carolina the past year, according to Scout Executive R. M. Schiele, who announced that the award was made at a meeting in Atlanta recently.

---Continued on Back Page---

Combined Choirs Feature Of Baccalaureate Service

The combined choirs of the Episcopal, Baptist and Congregational churches, directed by Dr. R. A. Laslett Smith, will sing Sunday night at 8 o'clock at the Tryon High School baccalaureate service at the school auditorium.

The Rev. N. G. Bethea of the Tryon Methodist church will preach the baccalaureate sermon, and read the Scripture lesson. Other parts of the program will include vocal solo by Miss Mary Gamble, who will sing, "How Lovely Is The Hand of God." Mrs. Edward R. Goodyear will play the procession-al; Rev. T. P. Horger of the Presbyterian church will give the invocation; prayer by Rev. Frank W. Murtfeldt of the Congregational church; anthem, "Hark, Hark, My Soul" by the choir; benediction by Rev. B. G. Henry of the Baptist church.

NEW P.-T. A. OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

At the final meeting of the year of the Tryon Parent-Teachers Association, the following officers were elected to serve during the next school year:

President, Mrs. C. A. Martin.
Vice-president, Mrs. John Washburn.

Secretary, Miss Mary Gamble.
Treasurer, Mrs. Ralph Jackson.
Members of the advisory board are as follows: Mrs. E. E. Missildine, Mrs. C. N. Sayre, Mrs. R. H. Brady, and Mr. L. K. Singley.