Weather Wednesday: High 93, low 65 . . . The Brantleys, Bakers, Bradys and Dicks are entertaining this evening with a buffet supper at the Tryon Country club in honor of the Tryon school faculty . . . Progress continues against the Japs. . . . The Bulletin and all other newspapers are now permitted to give full information about army and navy affairs in Europe and the Atlantic, but not about anyone going to and from the Pacific . . . In a recent editorial The Charlotte Observer told of the wonderful work done by the Baptist hospital at Winston-Salem which is supported by 2,600 Baptist churches of North Carolina. Last year the offering on Mother's Day taken at these churches for the benefit of the hospital amounted to $75,000. No complete report has been published on the results of the collections this past Mother's Day. During the past year 7,467 charity patients were received at the hospital. In addition 16,000 sick and injured were given complete diagnostic examinations without charge. "All of our people have reason to be proud of this fine institution" says The Observer . . . Progress is going forward at the Tryon Country club where tractors and bull dozers are moving dirt and a hill top between holes 4, 5 and 6. The spring at 6th

Grammar Grades Awards At Tryon Friday Morning

Trophy awards in grades Six, Seven and Eight, will be made at a public assembly program Friday morning at 9 o'clock. Honor and attendance certificates will also be awarded at this time, and Eighth grade students will be given certificates of promotion to the high school.

The trophies will be presented to the best all-round pupil in each of the upper elementary grades by the donors—Dr. W. S. Green, J. R. Trowbridge and Nelson Jackson, Jr. Students who are to receive the cups have been selected by their classmates and teachers and the results will not be announced until Friday morning.

Certificates of promotion to the high school department will be given by Superintendent Singley to the following members of the Eighth grade: Raymond Anderson, Ligon Flynn, Jean Arledge, Violet Gosnell, Carl Beust, Eleanor Henry, Martha Bishop, Anne Hoots, Emily Rose Brantley, Louise Kuykendall, Allen Bridgeman, Peggy Lewellyn, Betsy Burns, Douglas Littlejohn, Lea Burrell, Glenn Morgan, Sara Capps, Mary Ann Morris, Loyd Comer, James McDade, Beth Cooksey, Hazel Newman, Dick Dalton, Jack Orr, Ansel Day, Robert Owens, Martha Jane Day, Louise Robinson, Jack Eargle, Harold Waters, Mildred Fisher, Homer Waters.

Awarding of certificates to the elementary school, Miss Thelma Mills.
