outside. Artist Morgan's drawings on five columns of the Herald represented President R. S. DuRant of the Chamber of Commerce, Mayor F. P. Bacon, Senator Carroll P. Rogers, Dr. C. W. McCall who presided at the meeting Dr. A. C. Kimery, the speaker, Mrs. M. C. Butler of Butler's Dairy, H. P. Sharpe of Eskdale Dairy, Chas. J. Lynch, R. H. Barber, manager of Oak Hall, Mrs. Angie McLeod, owner of Oak Hall, Seth M. Vining, and Harry White, a visiting Kiwanian from Spartanburg. Miss Ruth Butler was the pianist for the musical part of the program. President M. E. Flack of Rotary appointed J. H. Gibbs of Mill Spring, and President McCall of Kiwanis appointed J. F. Gallimore to serve on a committee with a representative of the chamber of commerce to promote a milk production program in the county. President DuRant will name his committee member later. They will seek the donation of purebred calves to be given worthy 4-H boys who will be under obligation later to give a calf to another worthy member and form a chain of donated calves that will fill the county with good milch cows. North Carolina imports half of her milk supplies from other states. The value of the dairy industry is greater in dollars and cents than cotton, corn, tobacco and any other farm crop. Milk is one food that human beings can't live without. It is time for the leading citizens of the county to develop this industry for our own good and for the future of our children.

Mr. Wilson's remarks and Mr. Kimery's address were rebroadcast at 6:15 this morning on Farmer Gray's program, WSPA.

Thunderhead, Son of Flicker, is the name of the movie to be shown Wednesday and Thursday at Tryon Theater, instead of the one advertised in Monday's Bulletin.

Miss Eleanor Edwards has returned to Asheville after a visit with Mrs. Ted Bates.

Fred Ayling is here for a few days.

The Rev. C. P. Burnett is holding Sunday services at the Episcopal church in Saluda during the month of June.

Has Been Called Off

W. C. Giles reports that the singing convention that was to meet at Stearns High school Columbus, Sunday, June 10, has been called off, and will be held at a later date. He says "Watch the paper for a date."
