TRYON, N. C. FRIDAY, JUNE 29TH, 1945

CURB REPORTER

Weather Thursday: High 100, low 64 . . . A number of people have said why don't you say something about the dryness of Tryon's climate. The temperature doesn't tell all the story. It can be 90 in Tryon and seem cooler than 80 in some other places . . . A rat killing time was had at the Newman Stable "barn raising" Wednesday. The Volunteer workers killed about 100 large rats. . . . American planes sink 23 Jap vessels . . . Two-way radio telephones for automobiles is promised soon for motorists who would like to talk to their homes or offices while traveling . . . "Lige" Holbert, colored, is going to work all next week at St. Paul's colored cemetery, side of Columbus. He invites relatives and friends of the deceased to join him in cleaning up the cemetery, and to help put a wire fence around it. . . . General Mark Clark to rule American zone in Austria. . . . Mrs. Margaret Culklin Banning spoke over the radio on CBS national hook-up, from Duluth Wednesday night . . . This wildlife program in Polk County is fascinating. Dr. John Preston has started something. Miss Mae Irene Flentye, Vice-chairman of the Polk County Democrats, says that if there is any wildlife going on in Polk County she wants to get in on it, and sends secretary W. H. Mc-
