TRYON, N. C. FRIDAY, JULY 13TH, 1945

CURB REPORTER

Weather Thursday: High 82, low 65, rain .30. . . . Saturday is a big day in Tryon when home agents from 20 counties of the North Carolina Southwestern district will hold their meeting at Oak Hall and make a few short tours of the community. Miss Gladys Hamrick is the hostess. . . . Monday is the beginning of the 21st Annual Pediatric Seminar in Saluda when noted doctors from all over the South will arrive for their annual two weeks study. An outline of the program to be observed is given in a long article by Monte Dedman, published in today's Spartanburg Herald. . . . The Tarheel Banker, state banking magazine, lists the name of J. D. B. Hester as a member of the State Banking Association committee on Dairy & Beef Cattle. Mr. Hester represents the Tryon Chamber of Commerce on the Polk County 4-H Club Calf Foundation, and his committee is doing a wonderful job in getting money and purebred calves with which to build up the milk supplies of the county. Through the facilities of the bank Mr. Hester also loaned money without interest to the group of farmers who purchased seed for the one-variety cotton program that brought to Polk County the prize for making the greatest advancement in cotton production. . . . The Transyl-
