

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor.

5c PER COPY TRYON, N. C. MONDAY, JULY 16TH, 1945

CURB REPORTER

Weather: Friday high 82; low 62; Saturday high 82, low 67, rain .74; Sunday high 79, low 69, rain .73. . . . This will not happen again in a long time, it is believed. Early Saturday morning about 12:30 (shortly after midnight) a large truck loaded with 35 little calves, was coming down the mountain from Saluda headed for Spartanburg. As the truck was making the last big curve for the straight stretch, the lights went out, and before the driver could stop, the truck left the road and turned over dumping all the little calves into Ralph Lawrence's front yard where it was conveniently already fenced in. Not a calf was lost and the driver was not injured, according to reports Capt. T. A. Henson, U. S. Medical Corp, who is in the States after service on New Guinea, Solomons, and Philippine campaign, was in Tryon during the week-end for a visit at the Piedmont Boy Scout camp.

... Continued on Back Page ...

Mrs. Zogbaum At Kiwanis

J. M. Baker will be in charge of the Tryon Kiwanis club program on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall hotel. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Rufus Zogbaum, who recently returned from the San Francisco Conference where she was a member of the International Secretariat.

HOME AGENTS MET HERE

The Home Agents of the Southwestern North Carolina District, comprising 20 counties, held their first meeting since their organization last May, at Oak Hall hotel in Tryon Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

Miss Gladys Hamrick, Polk County Home Agent, was the hostess agent. Most of the agents had arrived in Tryon by 4 o'clock. Soon afterwards they were guests at tea at Little Orchard, home of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Flynn in the Hunting Country. Mrs. Flynn, and Mrs. Edward Flynn, author of the radio skit, "Batchelor's Children," entertained with talks and readings. Other visits included the office of the world's smallest daily newspaper, and Vollmer's Vineyard. The group went to Mrs. Clippard at Saluda for breakfast on Sunday morning, and on the return visited Seven Hearths where Mrs. A. W. Brintnall entertained the visitors with a talk on antiques. The rainy weather prevented other visits that had been planned. By noon most of the agents had left for their homes.

Those making the trip to Tryon were Miss Sue Koon of Rutherford, Mrs. C. Atha Wright and Miss Peggy Wall of Caldwell, Mrs. Helen John Wright, Miss Gaynelle Hogan, Miss Jane Little, Miss Lucy Pat Allen and Miss Betty Stough of Charlotte (Mecklenburg County), Mrs. Marie Whitmire of Rutherford and Mrs. Turrer S. Page and Mrs. P. L. Matthewson of Iredell, Mrs. Margaret Waters. Miss Mary Ann Cheek of Stanley, Miss Nancy Jeanne Summers of Anson, Mrs.

... Continued on Back Page ...