S. carrier planes bomb Tokyo and American fleet goes into action. 196 vessels and 383 planes listed as hit. . . . All ex-service men of World War 1 and 2, are asked to meet at Missildine's Pharmacy at 4:30 from which place they will go to the Tryon Bank & Trust Co., to discuss reorganization of the American Legion for this county. E. L. Walker, vice-commander and R. E. Price, the new district officer, are expected to be present. Those interested may contact J. M. Baker or Julian B. B. Hester The Home Friendly club has sent letters to Chaplains Schreyer and Turner and the other Polk County men on Okinawa whose addresses are known. . . Those interested in having their service men meet other home town men on Pacific islands, probably within a few miles of one another, should give the Home Friendly club the addresses at once, so contact can be made. A few weeks ago Sgt. Cole Brundage and St. John Ralph (Buddy) Moore met accidentally on the street in Paris. Such meetings give a lot of pleasure to homesick service men. Letters and pictures mean a lot, too. T. C. McIntyre of the Armed Guard Cen-
