

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor.

5c PER COPY

TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, AUGUST 9, 1945

CURB REPORTER

Weather Wednesday: High 87, low 66. . . . The big news of the day is the Russian declaration of war against Japan. Russian troops were marching into Manchuria seven hours later. This is expected to shorten the war considerably. The Americans dropped another atomic bomb on Japan yesterday, hitting Nagasaki on Kyushu Island. Jimmy Byrnes says Japan can still surrender in time to save homeland, but very little time . . . In Tryon the most excitement is created by the big road machinery resurfacing Trade Street and Melrose Avenue. This morning a machine pushing a huge rotary brush was sweeping one side of the street in preparation for the asst of asphalt. Police Chief Roach (ust) Policeman Bradley and others were busy keeping cars from parking in front of the stores. . . . A report has just come in that Japan has surrendered. If this is verified before press time it will be at the top of this page . . . Demus Chapman will be in charge of the Rotary club program Friday . . . Mrs. Peggy C. Thomas asks all USO girls to meet at Missildine's at 6:45 Friday to go to Camp Croft for dinner-dance. Informal. 20 girls must go. . . . Town Manager C. O. Smith requests all cars to stay off Trade Street as much as possible until the resurfacing is finished . . . . .

FORMER MANILA PASTOR RETURNS TO TRYON

Dr. John J. Jockinsen of St. Petersburg, Fla., who was supply pastor at the Erskine Memorial church here two years ago, is returning to fill the pulpit in the absence of the Rev. Frank W. Murtfeldt, who is on vacation. During his first visit to Tryon Dr. Jockinsen was interested in promoting young people's work and was a regular attendant at the Kiwanis club of which he is a

-----Continued on Back Page-----