

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor.

5c PER COPY

TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, AUG. 29, 1945

CURB REPORTER

Weather Tuesday: High 89, low 54 . . . . . Battleship Missouri steams into Tokyo Bay to receive Jap surrender on Sept. 2. Admiral Halsey in charge. MacArthur going by airplane. General Wainwright, hero of Corregidor to witness surrender. Chinese rulers getting their houses in order. Hurricane on Texas coast kills eight people; million dollar property damage . . . . . OPA to cut payroll by 14,000 soon. Butter points cut from 16 to 12. Price control act expires June 30th. Five million in army to be discharged by next July 1. Every man who wants work is getting set for an autumn period of prosperity, health and happiness . . . . . A fellow who has a small farm in the country brought in $3 Tuesday as a donation to the St. Luke's hospital road fund. He said, "I don't have much money, but I want to help some on the hospital road."

. . . . . Postmaster R. O. Andrews received a letter yesterday from S. W. Hankins, R. N., D. M., Hyde Park, N. Y., who said he heard over the radio about Tryon being in the thermal belt. He looked it up and noticed that Tryon was in the coon territory, and as he was a coon hunter he wanted to know the names of some coon hunters in this section and owners of coon dogs. Being at Hyde Park he was able to buy some of the

—Continued on Back Page—

McDONALD AT KIWANIS

Hon. W. H. McDonald, representative in the State legislature from Polk County, was the chief speaker at the Tryon Kiwanis club program Tuesday at 1 p. m. J. Frank Gallimore had charge of the program. Mr. McDonald outlined the needs of an efficient wildlife program for Polk County, one that would conserve the county's natural resources in birds, fishes, and small animals. He pointed out the commercial value of the program as a drawing card for tourists and in furnishing revenue and food to farmers, hunters and fishermen. He stated that officials have been investigating Polk County as a possible site for a fish hatchery.

Guests at the meeting included Dr. John P. Jockinsen of St. Petersburg, Fla., William Ostrander Witt of Staten Island, N. Y., and Boy Scouts Joe Anderson and Ed Andrews of Tryon troop 1.

AMERICAN LEGION POST ORGANIZED FOR POLK

The Polk County Memorial Post of the American Legion was organized Tuesday night at Columbus Court House. J. A. Wilson was elected commander; G. Isham Henderson, vice-commander; A. A. Thompson, vice-commander; H. G. Flynn, vice-commander; Roy T. Raisden, Jr., vice-commander; Max Feagan, adjutant; Louis Lindsey, Sgt.-At-Arms; R. O. Andrews, service officer.

A feature of the meeting was a musical program presented by Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Flynn and Fred Smith of Tryon.

Representatives from Rutherfordton and Forest City including
-----Continued on Back Page-----