

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor.

5c PER COPY

TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, SEPT. 6TH, 1945

CURB REPORTER

Weather Wednesday: High 74 low 66, rain .86 . . . Arthur Godfrey continues to give Tryon advertising on his 9:15 a. m. program over the Columbia network. Wednesday morning he thanked Edward R. Goodyear for a bottle of Owen's Cold Remedy. It all started several weeks ago when Godfrey said he had a bad cold and he read what he thought was a joke about Tryon, N. C., population 2, and that he had never heard of the place. Then letters began to reach him from several places telling about Tryon. A chamber of commerce folder was shown him. He read about Tryon Grapes. Said he should send the chamber of commerce a bill for the advertising, but indicated that he would settle for some Tryon Grapes. The Lindsey Vineyard sent him a sample box Tuesday. Now we will see what he has to say about those delicious Tryon Grapes. . . . The Home Friendly club reports that its work of writing letters to the men and women in the armed forces has increased, that with the excitement of the war over the men are more eager to hear from home oftener It seems that the state wide dog law is going to get a lot of people into trouble if they don't have their dogs vaccinated Mrs. Rutledge Carter, nee Bell

—Continued on Next Column—

FOOTBALL SEASON HERE

First of school found 18 Tryon High School boys ready to start the football season just for the fun of it. Coach C. M. Eargle reports that he has only four men from last year's starting line-up. Some of the players making up the team this year are Bud Foster, Joe Derby, Bobby Bishop, Jimmy Edney, Bill Lewellyn, Charles Melton, Robert Barber, Fred Eargle, Bill Capps, Herbert Edwards, Max Spurlin, Lefty Hancock, J. W. Ellison, and some others who will be announced from time to time.

Jackson, sends a clipping from the Philadelphia Record, "Arthur Godfrey cracked on the radio that Tryon, N. C., has a population of two—and was deluged with letters from the town's many folks. So he replied, "Gee, those two people must be writing a lot of letters." Donald Russell, 39, Spartanburg lawyer, named assistant secretary of state. He has long been an associate of J. Byrnes R. M. Osteen, former Tryon restaurant man, has retired from business in Hendersonville after 25 years in the business. He first operated "Dinty Moore's" in an old wooden building on the spot now occupied by Tryon Fuel Supply. He went to Hendersonville. After a few years returned and put up a brick building, "The All American Cafe," now a part of the Andrews buildings and last used by the Western Auto.

Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson says, "Shortening and cooking and salad oils will not be plentiful for many months to come."