

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor.

5c PER COPY

TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, SEPT 12, 1945

CURB REPORTER

Weather Tuesday: High 85, low 67. . . . Tojo, No. 1 War Criminal of Japan, failed to kill himself when he attempted suicide. His condition is serious but American Army doctors are trying to save his life, so he can be hanged later; after Americans get some information out of him. Congress votes for new investigation of Pearl Harbor . . . . Governor

Cherry attended the Democratic Party barbecue given by Deacon Greene in Asheville Tuesday. Those from Tryon were Senator Carroll P. Rogers, Rep. W. H. McDonald and Defense Chairman Chas. J. Lynch. Governor Cherry stated that North Carolina would be able to absorb the shock of conversion because this is a well-balanced state. . . . Pfc.

Eugene Atkins and his childhood sweetheart, Miss Vivian Katherine Rollins, both of Gowansville, were married Tuesday at Campobello by Boyd S. Stagg, notary public. For their wedding trip they will be guests of the U. S. Government and will go to Washington where President Truman will award the soldier the Congressional Medal of Honor, the highest military award—in recognition of his achievement in killing 44 Japs. . . . The Hendersonville Times-News of Monday had a picture of Miss Cleo Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hall of Saluda.

Continued on Back Page

College President Elected Kiwanis Division Head

Dr. J. E. Coltrane, president of Brevard College was elected Lieut. Governor of Division One of the Carolinas Kiwanis District at a meeting of delegates of the division held Tuesday night at the Rutherfordton Country club. The division includes clubs in Asheville, Brevard, Hendersonville, Morganton, Tryon, Marion, Rutherfordton, Forest City, Shelby, Kings Mountain. The term will start on January 1. Delegates from the Tryon club were Vice-President R. L. Dick; Past-President J. A. Wilson and Secretary Seth M. Vining.

TRYON TO BE INVADED BY 200 SOLDIERS

Local citizens urged to meet "invasion" armed with Tryon's famous hospitality. All organizations including Kiwanis, Rotary, Chamber of Commerce, American Legion, Church Brotherhoods and societies and all patriotic citizens who want to honor visiting members of the armed forces are asked to be at Harmon Field Sunday night to help entertain 200 visiting soldiers who are on a two-day trip to Mount Mitchell. Money is needed to buy food for a picnic supper to serve them. Donations may be sent to Mrs. C. B. Thomas of the USO, or to Chas. J. Lynch, chairman of Harmon Field. Volunteers to help with the entertainment may phone Mrs. Thomas, 190-J or Mr. Lynch.

ROTARY FRIDAY

Mortimer E. Flack will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary club program Friday at 1 p. m.