tin the spirit of democracy can grow and help build communities and nations throughout the world. The way we think and feel about things are important. We can attain happiness only in our state of mind. The friends of the Bulletin make happiness for others and themselves by the exchange of news. This promotes general fellowship among friends scattered all over the world. Mr. Berryman is one of them and we are proud to have him as one of our friends.

... What happens to our young people who graduate from high school and leave for bigger opportunities? In renewing her subscription to The Bulletin the other day, Miss Evelyn Taylor-Tanner, Tryon 1942 honor graduate, now with Bell Aircraft Corp., Atlanta, says, "It seems that the Bulletin is one of the necessities of life that no Tryonite can do without—no matter how far away from home we go" . . . Morgan Taylor, a writer of New York, and Sanibel, Fla., renews his subscription and says, "I enjoy The Bulletin so much, with its notes about all my friends and lovely places, and hope to take in my 'second home' this year." There are hundreds of others scattered all over the world who have a big part in The Bulletin and much interest in your welfare. You reciprocate every time you send in an item. This is getting long and I hear the voice of the policeman saying, "Move on Buddy!"
