County - Wide Meeting of Home Demonstration Clubs

The first county-wide meeting of Polk County Federation of Home Demonstration clubs since before the war will meet Wednesday, Nov. 21, at 2:30 o'clock. The meeting will be held at the Court House in Columbus. Mrs. D. M. Abrams, Council President, will preside at the meeting.

Miss Pauline Smith, District Agent and an authority on Home Beautification and Flower Arrangement, of State College, Raleigh, will be guest speaker.

Flower arrangement exhibits will be brought (one each) from the 16 organized Home Demonstration Clubs in the County and Tryon. Some of the exhibits will be used as illustrations and will be constructively criticized by Miss Smith in her discussion.

Immediately after the meeting tea will be served by the County Federation.

All Home Demonstration Club members in the County are urged to attend this meeting. Also a special invitation is extended to the women of Tryon as guests of the Federation.

The program will be as follows:
Song, America.

Collect of the Club Women of America.

Roll call by clubs.
