

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor.

5c PER COPY

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1945

Weather Thursday: High 36, low 22. Snow $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches; precipitation .60 Monday we will start printing a calendar of events for Tryon in order to help those who want to avoid conflicts. David Niven, Tryon-London movie star is on at Tryon Theatre tonight; Bring & Buy Sale at 3 p. m. today; Adams-Millis annual banquet-dance at Oak Hall Saturday night. Church Sunday; Bring & Buy Sale resumed on Monday at 3 p. m. at Lanier Library; Scouter supper at 6:30 at the school; Kiwanis Tuesday at 1 p. m. at Oak Hall; First Baptist Church Christmas program will be given the 23rd. There are a number of things underway including a dance. Report your plans to The Bulletin and help make this Christmas the first jolly peace Christmas since Pearl Harbor So many things are done by remote control, even to flying airplanes. People are so busy they don't have time to visit the sick and often don't know about it, or know just what to do for them. People are the same as ever, tenderhearted, considerate, thoughtful; but conditions are different. Now that we have an

-----Continued on Back Page-----

G. S. ARTHUR PASSES

George Stevenson Arthur, 84, of Tryon, died at his home in the Valley Thursday night after an extended illness.

A brief funeral service will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at McFarland Funeral Home in Tryon with the Rev. Joseph R. Clair, of the Church of the Holy Cross, officiating. (Friends are requested to omit flowers). The interment service will be held at Hanes Chapel in Greensboro on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Arthur had made his home in Tryon for the past 18 years. He was a native of Edinburgh, Scotland, and came to this country 63 years ago when he was 21. For 17 years he was manager of the Biltmore Estate truck gardens at Asheville. During the following nine years he was manager of the William Brakaw Hunting Lodge at Trinity, N. C. At one time he was in charge of the Southern Railway agricultural exhibits at fairs all over the South.

Mr. Arthur's wife, the former Miss Isabella Henrie, also a native of Scotland, died in Tryon in 1936.

The deceased is survived by the following children: Miss Edith Arthur, of Tryon; George G. Arthur of Clinton, S. C.; J. H. Arthur, Kings Mountain, N. C.; Frank T. Arthur of Charlotte; Mrs. R. G. Groome, John T. Arthur, R. B. Arthur and E. S. Arthur, all of Greensboro, N. C.

Mrs. James G. K. McClure has been elected vice-president of the North Carolina society for the preservation of antiquities.