

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper. Seth M. Vining, Editor.

5c PER COPY

TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, DEC. 19, 1945

Weather Tuesday: High 35, low 19, snow 2 inches, precipitation .16 . . . . The army will serve plenty of turkey this Christmas, according to reports from headquarters . . . At Raleigh a sweet potato dehydration plant is making livestock food . . . Greer citizens and three outlying districts have voted to double Greer's population. This will make Greer a city of about 6,000 people . . . The weather all over the nation is unusual. It is 33 degrees below in Montana. The snow at Buffalo reached 68 inches . . . Tryon basketball teams continue to practice every day . . . The Rev. Paul Moore of Rock Hill, S. C., will preach Sunday at the Tryon Presbyterian church . . . The Tryon Kiwanis Club will not meet next Tuesday on account of it being Christmas Day. The meeting has been changed to Thursday at 1 p. m. at Oak Hall . . . . The railroads have been given permission to buy the Pullman . . . Theodore Whisnant of Shelby is in Rutherfordton hospital suffering from injuries received when a sailor he picked up on the road slugged him and robbed him of $140.00 . . . .

COUNTY OFFICES CLOSE THREE DAYS CHRISTMAS

The Polk County offices in the Court House will be closed on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Town of Tryon offices will be closed Tuesday and Wednesday, same as Tryon stores. The Bulletin and Polk County News office will be closed Monday and Tuesday.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME

Fire destroyed a small cottage between Pacolet lane and Lanier street about 3 o'clock this morning. The property was owned by Ben Suber and occupied by Coley Suber's family who were in Asheville, it is said.

Trowbridge At Rotary

James R. Trowbridge will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary Club program Friday at 1 p. m. at Oak Hall hotel.

Recreation Supervisor

Kings Mountain, Dec. 18.—Earl B. Ruth of Charlotte, formerly University of North Carolina basketball star and recently discharged from the navy, has been employed as city recreation supervisor here and will assume his duties on Jan. 1, according to an announcement last week by Mrs. E. A. Shenk, secretary of the city recreation commission.

Erskin Memorial Fellowship will meet Friday, Dec. 21, at 7:30 at the church to decorate for Christmas Sunday. The decorating committee has already secured the greens.