TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1946

Weather Monday: High 50, low 30, rain .09 . . . One of the most outstanding men in North Carolina will be in Tryon Wednesday night when Carl Goerch speaks at the Rotary Club ladies' night program at Oak Hall. Mr. Goerch is outstanding in his influence as editor of The State, a weekly news magazine, that is doing more to unify North Carolina in thought and interests than any other publication. Editor Goerch is also a popular after dinner speaker and radio commentator on North Carolina stations. He is an author of books dealing with North Carolina—her history, people, agriculture, business, industry, recreation; in fact everything concerning North Carolina's physical, mental and spiritual growth. He is a native of New York who has become 100 per cent Tar Heel. He knows the state from first hand, as he has visited every county in it and has interviewed thousands of its citizens from governors, senators, and congressman on down. He not only knows North Carolinians, he loves them, and Tryon is fortunate in having Editor Goerch here. Congratulations are due the Rotary
